SHOW INFORMATION

Four artists will be exhibiting at each show

Commission: 30% commission - 20% will go to BAA and 10% to First Presbyterian Church

Advertising: done through e-mail lists from BAA, First Presbyterian Church, Downtowner's Social Group, and Black and White. Each artist should personally invite family and friends through e-mail and postcards. An exhibit brochure about the artists will be provided at the reception.

GUIDELINES FOR EXHIBITING

1. There are 40-42 wires from which art can be hung (10 pieces/artist), and table top space for artists to exhibit 3D work.
2. The artists in the show will be responsible for helping hang the show. Installation will be on the Wednesday or Thursday prior to the shows opening, and the chairperson will coordinate with you about what time to bring your art work and the day to help hang the show.
3. Artists will be responsible for having all work READY TO HANG WITH WIRES (no exceptions) on the back of each work.
4. Artists will be responsible for printing labels with title, medium, cost, and name of artist (label should be the size of a business card).
5. Artists will be responsible for sending an e-mail of their bio and pictures of their art work to the program chairperson.

RECEPTION

1. Reception will be held on Sunday 1-3 pm the first day the show opens.
2. BAA will furnish plates, cups, napkins and beverages.
3. Each artists will furnish 1 appetizer

The Sacred Art Gallery is a wonderful gallery and a great way to show your art work!
